February 18, 2017 A word shall come forth. A word shall come forth. A word of promise, a word of truth, a word to cut through the darkness. Once you realize My laws are set in place, nothing can shake you from them. Every meeting I give increases your faith. Little by little, ever increasing more and more. Tell My people. Tell My people to come into agreement with Me. Do not people who have meetings come into agreement with each other? Come to the fountains of living water. Why reject this fountain when it is here for you? This word is for My people. The babes who are ready. Come unto Me, says the Lord. Come unto Me and you shall never thirst. I require only obedience. Let Me grow your faith and mature your vessel. Come into My counsel. I am waiting for you. The days that are ahead you will need My counsel. Abide under My shadow. This is where safety and peace are. Heed My prophets. For surely they have drank the cup I have given them, therefore, heed My word through them. Yay, I send them unto My people for mercy, correction, judgment, and truth. My word is alive and it bears fruit. Eat of that fruit and come alive. For surely those who reject My word, reject it and turn to vanities. I am waiting for you. Will you come and meet with Me and counsel with Me? I have made the way. I have rent the veil of the flesh. Come and put on the veil of My Spirit. Come, come. The Lord your God has spoken.

Word from Kenya:

The Lord said He will use the words in the site (THH) to unify the Body of Christ from every corner of the earth...to be one like the Holy Trinity...one people...one nation...His Bride under the Lordship of Christ.

I long for that day we will all stand before our Lord as one singular unit for Him alone.
