

The Man-Child

Over the years the Lord had always dealt with me about the Spotless Bride, etc., although, I have been to meetings where men would talk about the man-child, and they would actually be centered on the subject at times. I knew these men really didn't have much other than theories on what the Bible says about the man-child and that the Lord would reveal more about it at the proper time. In short, the Lord had never brought the subject up to me until April of 2011. So having said all this, I'm sure you can understand my total surprise when the Lord gave me the following scenes:

Tuesday, April 5, 2011

I was looking at a male toddler, lying on its back in a box. It had on short pants with a bib & shoulder straps, like we sometimes see on that sized child. There was liquid in the box with the toddler that seemed to be like vinegar, to keep diseases from attacking it. It was golden brown water, the same color as the child's skin and clothes. (I think it best to describe the color as brown with gold in it, probably half and half symbolically because of what the man-child is.) Anyway, I had the box with the child in it on a table and people were watching. I was adjusting its arms, legs, and torso. The people would remark about what I was doing, questioning every move I made with the child, because of what they already believed about the child. The liquid was too high in the box so I took some of it out with a cup. The people remarked that the liquid was now too low, which I already knew. I then put my hand on the bottom end of the box and moved it up, making the box shorter. This bent the legs of the child just a little and made the liquid come to the proper level, which I knew to be half full. (It had to be half and half!) The people were still questioning if what I had done was right when the scene ended. (I came out of the scene knowing it was the Man-Child.)

The box was a display box, like we see large dolls in for merchandising. I knew the lid had a clear opening so people could see this man-child when the lid was put on. I think this child was of the age to start walking - I don't know for sure. The scene revealed that I have the child in my hands, preparing it for display/merchandising. People were going to be able to acquire the child if they wanted to.

You can imagine how I felt to find out I have the man-child in my hands. A shocker! I went to the internet to see some of the different doctrines man has concerning the Man-Child.

Rev. 12:5-6.

"And she brought forth a 'MAN-CHILD,' who was to rule all nations with a 'ROD OF IRON': and her child was caught up unto God, and to His Throne."

Because of what the Lord has taught us here it suddenly made perfect sense that the Man-Child could only be produced with the manifested Bride of Christ through intimacy with the Lord. The half and half is important, having to do with the invisible child being (invisibly) half Jesus and half Bride - her being without self, but perfectly obeying in actions, which would be perfect fusion - as taught on this site?
