

Sabbath Judgment Meeting, January 5, 2021 MC

Challenges for the nations will rage but I will have My Bride in her chamber. Yes, Child, write My words and inscribe them for they are truth. I have prepared a chamber for My Bride to house her safe keeping. I have constructed it, I have built it, I have ordained it. There is no other chamber like this. It is the chamber of Holiness for My Beloved Bride. Many will not be able to enter it because they cannot see it. Only the eyes of My dove can see it. For her eyes have been hallowed towards Me. Nothing else has caught her gaze for she is focused on Me. No angel is called to protect this chamber, for I alone will protect it - for I am jealous over My Bride and who can draw her hand out of Mine? She shall become fortified in My chamber of Holiness.

The challenges of the nations shall  rage and they shall wander to and fro. Where is the place of their rest? They find none because they have confided in the world. For the world  gives a form of godliness, a form of shelter, a form of peace, a form of safety from the storm yet it is a form and that form will fail. Reject your forms ye nations and come unto Me and I will give you rest. For you have delighted in cruel masters. Come to Me and I will give you rest. The invitation is open and I await. The forms of the world are traps that have blinded you to the wrath of the enemy. It is subtle until the end when it is too late. Come to Me, come to Me, come to Me. Come willingly and I will bless. That is all, Child. Adjourn the meeting.
