

Sabbath Judgment Meeting, May 20, 2021 MC

Go forth in My plans, go forth in My restoration, go forth in My promises. Be not reluctant, Child. There are two sides to the Book of Prophecies - one that has been given before the Church Age comes to a close and the other prophecies after the Church Age has ended. They shall be divided just as I have divided the day and the night. They shall be divided into two different sections in the Book of Prophecies.

The time is quickly approaching where I will give My judgments rest. I will summon you at a later time in My Calendar of events where again, you will present yourself unto Me. I am plunging you forward into My grace period of blessings and rest. Though your labor you shall have rest from Me. All the components I have given you for these meetings shall have rest. I adjure you to keep them swept though, Child. They shall have clean rest as I have given you also.

The double portion will go forth to accomplish My Third Day revival that My eternal rest be ushered in. A double portion is needed to go forth to usher in My Day of Rest. Just as I gave manna in a double portion on the six day, so it is now. A double portion of My Spirit working under the New Covenant that has never been seen before by man.

Many shall soon wait on Me in silence and I will lead a great army into victory. Their ranks shall be as medals around their necks and they shall be birthed out of the furnace of affliction. For there are many that I have chosen that have been wayward from all nations - yet I will test them and bring them forth through the furnace of affliction. I will deliver them and they shall sup with Me and I with them that the power of unity and brotherhood go forth and a tumultuous sound of revival will follow.

I will have different levels of revivals burning in different areas. Each in accordance to My will. There will be some areas where there will be no cap or limitation to My working power. Total freedom and liberty where the miraculous can manifest through the working power of My Spirit. Satan's messengers of deceit shall not be able to buffet My revivals. The perfect law of liberty shall function where there is no fear, no want or lack, but all shall be freely given and manifested as needs be. It shall be and I will pour out My rewards. Those of a humble and contrite spirit shall receive of them first, for their humility is a magnet for My love.

Let these words echo - let them echo out to the ends of the earth, for My words are charged with power. My words are living and they will produce. That is all, Child. Adjourn the meeting.
